LODGING: Lodging reservations will be at Volk Field and coordinated by the CST for non-military training participants for the night of 16 June. The cost is $13.00 and must be paid in cash or credit by the individual upon check-in. Final registration numbers along with a list of equipment /vehicles each agency is intending to bring must be communicated to SSG Nick Sosa at (608)245-8440 or nicholas.r.sosa@us.army.mil no later than 15 May 2010.

MEALS: Participants will be responsible for providing their own breakfast and lunch on 16-17 June. Some options include bringing a lunch from home or visiting one of the modest nearby local establishments. On base there is a small base exchange and grill; just off base there is a Subway, gas station, and small diner.

After training on the evening of 16 June there will be a social gathering at the pavilion between Hotel Volk and the volleyball courts. The Civil Support Team will have a variety food and drinks available for a contribution of $5 per person.

TRAINING LOCATION: All training on 16-17 June will be taking place at the REACT and HREF training areas at Volk Field, Camp Douglas, WI. In processing and equipment display begins at 0900 at the REACT building and goes to 1000. This will give you an opportunity to view response equipment prior to the 1000 training start time.

EQUIPMENT: Equipment will be provided by the sponsoring agencies for detection. If you would like to use your agency equipment please provide as much detail as possible about type of vehicles, PPE and detection equipment to allow for preparation and pertinent training. We will have subject matter experts on site to answer questions you have on your team's equipment.
